Miracles in time of war

Dear friends,

Miracles happens!

It is time of war, in the Mediterranean bomb have exploded and there is a serious threat that they will again. This important sea, Mare Nostrum as we call it, the cradle of world civilization, is now suffering the force of unpredictable and serious wind and storms.

For a long time now, Pope Francis has talked about a third world war fought piecemeal. As He has warned it has already begun before our very eyes. After the Arab Spring and the following unprecedented violation of human rights, now for the second time in few years the heart of world civilization is bleeding.

In the dark of night, during a violent storm the hope is always that it all ends quickly. Even today we ask God for a sign of His divine blessing and His light.

In these last days there were two important signs.

At Easter 2017, the miracle of Dylan Askin who “rose from the dead” as doctors prepared to switch off his life support. This was a great sign for us all.

England abandoned Charlie Gard, but God have not forgotten mankind, Dylan's miracle opens the hearts to the Mystery of God and the possibility that He has mercy.

Miracles happens!

SUPPORT AND DONATE

The story of Alfie Evans and his battle is another situation that teach us something important and we cannot remain indifferent: his parents' perseverance and prayers from all around the world can bring to good solutions, help the most vulnerable and support life.

Blood and terror in the world cannot bring us to cynicism and nihilism, we cannot base our life on pessimism and superficiality.

Let's open our heart to this mystery, there is the possibility that an unpredictable act of love will force the world to open the eyes, look up and stop fighting and splitting blood of innocent people in this war against humanity.

A war made by bomb, but also silently in the clinics, in the family who are destroyed with children and the all society. A War made by censoring good and postive news, miracles and even any research and study could deny the mainstream.

Miracles happen and they make more noise than 100 bombs.

Let's listen to them, let's act together defending human dignity!

DONATE NOW

Let us have the courage to support life every day, the courage to consider the miracle option in our daily life: this decision is the new beginning of a revolution that will change the world!

You will not be alone, our Global Index on Human Dignity will break the war against humanity.

Thank you for your help, prayers and attention !
