Few words and a prayer

Dear friends,

In this week our newsletter is short.

Just few words are enough and a great silence is necessary.

Silence and if you can a prayer.

Silence is important, solidarity and respect for Alfie's parents,

Kate James and Tom Evans.

Our sympathies and our silence, admiration for hundreds of thousands of people who have signed on-line petitions, have prayed and lighted a candle, have protested until end outside the hospital in Liverpool.

Thank you to all the people who tried to do something to save Alfie bringing him to an hospital where he could live : doctors and experts in children treatments, Pope Francis, the Italian government, Christian Legal center in London.

This tragic situation teaches us that humanity is still alive in this period when death is around us.

No words for British judges and the ones in the Strasbourg Court, God will judge them.

“Some people say that a miracle is happening” said Tom Evans “Alfie is living without life support.”

We strongly hope that this miracle will touch all of us.

Blessed Alfie Evans, pray for us.

Let's move together defending human dignity!

DONATE NOW

The courage to consider the miracle option in our daily life: this decision is the new beginning of a revolution that will change the world!

Thank you for your help, prayers and attention !
