Persecuted christians and genocide

Dear friend, supporter,

Finally, on last 21st September the UN Security Council made the first significant step on the path to bringing those accused of committing genocide against Christians and Yazidis in Iraq and Syria before the International Court.

With resolution 2379 (2017) the UN started a strong action as we asked and hoped for with a number of petitions and your commitment last year.

In particular with our Petition in 2015 to UN Security Council in order to stop the massacre in Libya, Syria and Iraq we collected 198,000 signatures also thanks to your help, and we asked them to come forward with strong action to hit Isis and all who are guilty of genocide.

Thanks for your very important support.

Now we can say that we have been heard.

The Resolution agrees to create a team that will seek evidence and find witnesses who can identify the perpetrators of the genocide and testify against them in front of the International tribunal.

This marks an important step in the right direction, to preserve the memory of Christian martyrs and of the religious and ethnic minorities murdered in these last years, and to achieve some form of justice on their behalf.

The success of our initiative has been very important for the future of Christian communities in the Middle East, and again, it is thanks to your support and ## commitment.

Since January 2016 other ONU resolutions have backed us up and very important anti arms trade measures and financial sanctions against ISIS have been agreed.

We can now say that our efforts and commitment have led to resolution 2379 (2017), a great success.

Thanks to your signature and sharing, thank you for your crucial commitment!

In the next few weeks we will be launching a new aid initiative drawing from our friendship with the Archbishop of Aleppo, our dear Mons.Jean Jeanbart.

I'm sure that once again we can count on your support, as it will be very important for the future of christians in Aleppo!

Help us today to promote Religion Freedom and support persecuted christians!
