War it's over, now it's time to rebuild Aleppo

Dear friend, supporter,

Finally, the “war against Syria is over. Syria is going to begin reconstruction work: big rebuilding projects, projects for the reconstruction of damaged infrastructure and rehabilitation of institutions.

Yes, my dear friends, war is over, peace is fast approaching and with it we will forget all the misfortunes we had in these last sad years.

New days are full of light and promises, give us a great hope and confidence for a bright and prosperous future”.

This letter was sent some weeks ago by our dear friend and Archbishop Youhanna Jean Jeanbart to all christian believers and to us, to inform you too.

“All the areas and squares in Aleppo are now safe. In many houses electricity is on and running water is available after a long interruption period.

The re-opening of schools is going on, lessons are restarting and getting better and better; universities and institutes have begun again their activities strongly and firmly. Economy is going to restart, there are many signs of recovery that give us hope for new job opportunities.

Unesco has reassured that it will pay for the rebuilding of the city if Aleppo; “Agha Khan” Foundation, the Citadel area, Iran, Omayades mosque with its beautiful minaret.”

And what about us? Would you like to take part in Aleppo rebuilding?

“In the next months and years, our country will need workers, managers and specialists; lands will need farmers, hospitals will need doctors, banks will need employees, schools teachers, universities professors.

You can imagine the great rebuilding that will take place here after all these years of misery.

God be praised in this victory and in peace, in all the graces received. Thanks to new job opportunities it allows us all to live again in dignity and wealth in our beloved country.

Let's carry on, dear friends, let's step toward the future with joy and confidence, hand in hand, in order to rebuild a new Syria, free, modern, friendly and pluralist, that look to progress and prosperity.

Your crucial commitment could help a lot for restoring Christian community in Aleppo

In the next few weeks we will launching a new aid initiative drawing from our friendship with the Archbishop of Aleppo, our dear Mons.Jean Jeanbart.

I'm sure that once again we can count on your support, as it will be very important for the future of christians in Aleppo!

Help us today to promote and support persecuted christians!
