

NOVAE EPISTULAE

Discriminated in the name of the freedom

Dear friends,

The so called 'gender perspective' was first introduced on the international agenda to guarantee equality of opportunity and equality of rights between men and women. Today, it has become an authentic ideology: the gender ideology.

Gender ideology has been used violently and it has turned what could be righteous into a lie.

There is still a lot of work to be done in the quest of full respect to all persons, both in the educational system and in society in general.

In our societies there are people that suffer, these people should be taken care of and protected from acts of violence, but we believe also that there is more than one approach to helping them.

Gender ideology advocates are violating fundamental rights and freedoms under the guise of promoting equality and no discrimination principles.

Too often all around the world, who does not agree with the postulates of gender ideology movement is censured, harshly punished, defamed and stigmatized as 'homophobic', 'transphobic' and other dismissive insults.

Too often, freedom of opinion, parent's rights and solid scientific studies are censored.

Many laws approved or tabled to different Parliaments euphemistically adjudged to be 'against discrimination' on the basis of sexual orientation, identity or the expression of gender and sexual characteristics, are really attempts to establish a totalitarian thinking on issues, where freedom of opinion, research and debate should prevail.

In Spain, an example is the LGBTI law promoted by 'leftist party Podemos', in UK many discriminatory decisions taken by Ofsted State Agency against the religious inspired schools and, recently, the Chilean parliamentary bill approved on 'non discrimination and gender' educational programs as the approval by Spanish Government to implement in every school a 'political commissioner' to co-educate children are all alarming bells about how the new 'gender ideology' has been imposed.

The principle of 'no-discrimination' is becoming a clear 'discrimination' against children and parent's rights, religious schools.
